

Andrew Jackson, April 21, 1814, from Correspondence of Andrew Jackson. Edited by John Spencer Bassett.

ORDERS OF THOMAS PINCKNEY TO JACKSON.¹

¹ Pinckney joined Jackson on May 20, 1814. The next day he ordered Jackson to Fort Williams to establish forts and hold the conquered country. Jackson obeyed the order at once. See Jackson to Pinckney, Apr. 21, 1814, Jackson MSS.

Camp at the Confluence of the Coosa and Tallapoosa April 21, 1814.

Genl. orders

Major Genl. Jackson with all the Militia Troops of the State of Tennessee of his Division including Artillery will proceed with the least possible delay to Fort Williams there to act in conformity with instructions communicated by letter.

A true copy from the order Book of Military District No. 6.